

TABERNACLE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

702 Seashore Road, Cape May, NJ 08204 - April 30, 2021 ~ Issue No. 58

*If there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised. . .
But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died.
- (1 Corinthians 15: 13, 20)*

Way back in the 1980s, there was a song that had a title reflecting the signs of the times: Black and White in a Grey World. Since then, many might agree that our society has become even more grey.

But our passage of scripture here—2,000 years “young”—tells a black-and-white story. Resurrection yes? Resurrection no? Yes, it IS that simple! I can go different directions on a wide variety of subjects, but when it comes to Jesus’ rising from the dead, I am in the either-or category.

I am fully open to any and all who are sincerely exploring whether or not Jesus conquered death. If people are asking questions and seeking answers to this vital—this eternal—issue, then I’m all ears. It is so wonderful when there are those who are struggling with faith issues while at the same time looking to God for solutions.

However, in our grey world, many do not just say an outright “no” to the Resurrection, they just do not care. Someone offering hope out of the grave is simply irrelevant to daily living. To them I ask: “Then where is your hope? You know how a funeral works; what will happen to you after you go into the ground?”

“But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead . . .” the Apostle Paul writes, from first hand experience of seeing Jesus alive. Yeah, this is tough stuff. It is hard and heavy to handle. But it doesn’t get any more REAL than this. This is—literally—the deepest meaning of life-and-death.

What say you? What DO you?

Resurrection Blessings,

Pastor Glenn

Mission News

I would like to share that Family Promise has a family for us and here is a little bit about them:

A mom, dad and two boys, aged nine and two years. Imagine if you can, or cannot, having to take your clothes to a shelter, sort through what will fit in the lockers and then putting the rest, with other personal belongings, in storage. The first few days are so overwhelming. They can't believe they have found themselves HOMELESS. What now?

The day they were to move in, the mom shared with us that she had planned to call that day and tell us she was not going to be able to do this. She was so worried that she was doing the wrong thing. But something that made her call, not to tell us was not coming but to tell us why she was coming into the program. This is what she shared:

“The day was really hard. Here I was, packing my family's clothes to go to a shelter where I did not even know who was preparing that night's dinner or where we were going to sleep. As I began to cry, I asked God to show me that I was doing the right thing and that He was with us. At that moment I looked down and found a charm on the floor that had been missing from my bracelet a while ago, that carried 3 charms. One charm read “Faith the size of a mustard seed” another charm read “Put on the armor of God” and the third one, that I thought I had lost forever, read “She believed she could...so she did.” That night a volunteer named Elaine, from Cape Community Church, brought us dinner at the Day Center and afterwards Kathleen and Laurie took us to where we would be sleeping during the time we would be in Family Promise. I don't know what the future holds, but I do know that God is in this place watching over my family.

Please keep them in prayer! We only have 2 meals left to fill!

The One That Slipped Away

Can you find seven number words hidden in this paragraph? Underline the number words. Then write the number words in the blanks at the bottom.

As an example, the word eight could be hidden inside one word, height, or between two words, like this: We will ride in a sleigh tonight.

Answers: Where has the fat worm gone? He was wriggling away from my reel even before I had the hook on it! If i've lost him, I'll be sorry. This evening I came prepared with reel, line and bait hoping to catch plenty of fish. It's not often that a worm of ours gets away!

Write the number words you found:

Two

One

Eleven

Five

Seven

Three

Ten

four
