

TABERNACLE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

702 Seashore Road, Cape May, NJ 08204 - May 13, 2021 ~ Issue No. 60

What can be known about God is plain to [the ungodly], because God has shown it to them. Ever since the creation of the world his eternal power and divine nature, invisible though they are, have been understood and seen through the things he has made. So they are without excuse. ~Romans 1: 19 – 20, NRSV

I have climbed in the French Alps and scuba dived in one of the deepest places on earth. I lived by Caribbean waters and was baptized in the Philippine Sea. I have walked on the Great Wall, prayed at the Wailing Wall and stood on the Bridge Over the River Kwai.

But all of these glorious wonders of God's creation are mere flickers in the midst of His Shining Glory. The ungodly person who witnesses such physical beauty is nothing compared to the godly soul who never leaves a tiny room yet still believes in Jesus Christ – by faith alone.

The Apostle Paul, in his letter to the Church at Rome, writes earlier about living by faith in Jesus and later about the danger of worshiping the Created over the Creator. Paul says that everyone has enough information right now to make an informed decision... Choose Self or Choose God. But choose!

Thought for the Day:

Don't look at God, say "Excuse me," and keep walking.
Instead, look at God, confess "Excuse me," and walk hand-in-hand.

Daily Blessings,
Pastor Glenn
