

TABERNACLE METHODIST CHURCH

702 Seashore Road, Cape May, NJ 08204 * tumcoffice@comcast.net December 11, 2020 ~ Issue No. 38

"Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me? For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord." ~ (Elizabeth to Mary) in Luke 1: 42 – 45, NRSV

We are not at Christmas Day just yet. The third candle in the Advent Wreath is J-O-Y. While we fondly remember the stories before Christ's birth, the passage in Luke chapter one is of greater depth than we can imagine.

One of the more radical aspects we often miss is that this narrative includes not one woman, but two. Here in 2020, few eyebrows would be raised. However, in first-century Roman-occupied Palestine, it is a completely different story – literally. Without oversimplifying, there are occasions when male children are seen as more important as adult females. So, even mentioning one woman is unheard of. But two? Something amazing is happening here. And we are just getting started.

Elizabeth is "getting on in years" the text says earlier. She has yet to have a child. But the announcement from the angel Gabriel changes all that. Mary is just the opposite. She is young, unmarried, and (legally) unable to have a child. Gabriel makes an appearance to her, too. Get ready for not one but two divinely-ordained miracles!

"As soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy."

While we have yet to reach Christmas Day, we do know the rest of the story. Elizabeth's child leaps for joy for her Lord, our Lord, who is pure joy.

Jesus greets us every day. He wants us to leap for joy. In the midst of all that is going on now—which needs no further explanation—let us remember that Elizabeth and Mary had it rough, too. The hope of the Savior leads to the peace of His coming and now brings joy with His almost-here birth. Now, THAT's a cause for celebration, for J-O-Y!

Advent Blessings, Pastor Glenn
