

TABERNACLE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

702 Seashore Road, Cape May, NJ 08204 * tumcoffice@comcast.net

November 13, 2020 ~ Issue No. 34

Let us hold tightly without wavering to the hope we affirm, for God can be trusted to keep his promise. Let us think of ways to motivate one another to acts of love and good works. And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of his return is drawing near. (Hebrews 10: 23 – 25, NLT)

Usually I use this space to give you a peek into Sunday's message. Not this time. But if I did, you can read ahead in Malachi 3 about bringing our "full tithe" to the Lord – the best we have and off-the-top. Join us Sunday morning at 9:15 am in the Tabernacle Sanctuary (or on Facebook Live) and 11:00 am online at the Parsonage Porch via (ZOOM + Facebook).

All right. The commercial's done. I had a bit of a cathartic event this week. Not traumatic, just emotional. If you've been reading the Torch, then you know that our fearless Secretary (& Treasurer), Margie, is due for some much-needed surgery. Yours truly is stuffing the envelopes with a Thanksgiving/Christmas letter (plus offering envelope, thank you).

It is during this eye-opening process of reading the names on each envelope that gives me cause to pause. While I am praying for each soul who will receive this letter, I must offer you a "full disclosure" moment: I do not recognize half of these people – literally. For a first-year pastor, this is understandable. However, I've been here over six years and many of these souls I have never met, or even recognize their names.

"What's your point, Pastor Glenn?" We are now about to celebrate a full month of worship in the Sanctuary since mid-March (though we resumed worship in the Michael Hall gym in July). I have to stress the importance of inviting not just first-time visitors but also—especially—those who ceased attending for whatever reason. This may mean an invitation to worship online for those who desire to stay home.

I realize that this newsletter finds its way to a wide variety of places. But my comments are related specifically to those from Tabernacle UMC. Let us continue motivating one another to love as well as seeing the vital value of meeting together to worship our Lord. We'll get through this pandemic period, certainly. My concern is will we be stronger as a faith community when we come out on the other side? My prayer is a resounding "Yes!"

Heavy stuff? Yeah, well, that's life. But isn't it wonderful to know that Jesus Christ is our heavy-lifter? Yeah, well, that's love.

Praising Him All-Ways, Pastor Glenn

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thanksgiving Eve worship service at First Assembly of God, 1068 Seashore Road, W. Cape May. The Cape May Ministerium invites all on Wednesday, Nov. 25, at 6:30 pm. All safety protocols will be observed. Pastor Glenn will offer a Responsive Reading at the service. Let us thank the Lord together as a sign of unity in Jesus Christ to our community and our world.

New Offering Mailing Address: If you haven't already done so, please begin mailing your offerings to the new address on the back page instead of to Margie as she will be out on sick leave soon. Anyone using the E-Giving system will continue using that without any changes as funds are deposited by Vanco.

Operation Christmas Child - 11 out of 20 shoeboxes were packed online, please let Betty Wund know if you packed a "physical shoebox" as we are trying to get a total packed.
