“... whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.” ~1 Corinthians 10: 31b, NRSV

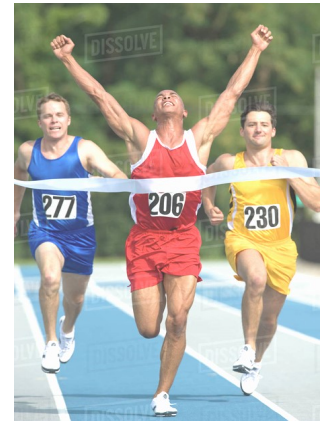

If you look at me now, you will probably laugh when I tell you that I am a sprinter on my high school track team. I am pretty bad, slower than I think everyone out there. But when the starter pistol sounds, I run as fast as I can. I give it my all. While the outsider might look at the final results and shake the proverbial head at my last place finish, I know that I have done my best.

The same is true for our spiritual journey to Jesus, with Jesus, and for Jesus. The Apostle Paul in 1 Corinthians 10 is pushing against the Jewish Christians who still have this idea that they can't have fellowship with the Gentile pagans. Paul stresses that the focus of the Jesus-followers is not inward but outward. We are called to do the best with what we have, give it our all.

Recently, I was asked how Easter will be different at Tabernacle because of the pandemic. The question is more directed toward the logistics than the actual meaning of the “Big Day.” I shared about the in-person and online worship opportunities. But I also emphasize that the Day of Resurrection is still the Day of Resurrection! WHO we worship supersedes HOW we worship.

We are in the middle of the Lenten season. I understand that celebrating the Resurrection is still in the (near) future. We still have to endure Holy Week, the Passion of the Christ, and the Cross. However, let us continue to persevere in our faith, keeping our focus on “breaking the tape” because it is by loving one another that we can finish the race in first place – together!

Lenten Blessings,
Pastor Glenn

CHURCH NEWS

Palms for Palm Sunday - We have a new addition to the church altar. Two “Majesty Palm” trees were purchased by the church in preparation for Palm Sunday next week. Isn't the name of the palms appropriate? When hearing about the purchase, the UM Women graciously offered to make a donation to cover the cost of the palm trees and the decorative pots in which they are planted. Thank you UMW! Also... flowers/bulbs that will decorate the altar for Easter will be planted in the church flower beds to brighten up the church grounds. By the way, did you know that Saturday, March 20th is the first day of Spring?

HOLY WEEK SCHEDULE

Pastor Glenn asks the Tabernacle community to once again commit to a Holy Week that is sensitive to pandemic safety concerns.

In 2021, the “hybrid” model will be in place, some in-person and some online, beginning with Passion Sunday on March 28 and ending with the Day of Resurrection on April 4. Both events will be celebrated in-person in the Tabernacle Sanctuary at 9:15am with online-only worship from PG’s office (or Parsonage Porch) at 11am.

March 28	Passion Sunday	“Silence”	Mark 14: 32 – 41
March 31	Spy Wednesday	“Deception”	Luke 22: 1 – 6
April 1	Holy Thursday	“Love”	John 3: 1-17, 31-35
April 2	Good Friday	“Shadows”	John (selected verses)
April 3	Silent Saturday	NO WORSHIP
April 4	Easter Sunday	“Gratitude”	Luke 24: 1-12, 50-53

On Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, Pastor Glenn will offer worship from the Sanctuary via livestream on Tabernacle’s Facebook page (www.facebook.com/tabernacle.umc.9).

While the Sanctuary will be open, please note that it will essentially be “PG & computer.” ZOOM also will be available for those who desire to engage via telephone.

Pastor Glenn may offer a brief online-only Easter Sunday SonRise service at 7:00 am.

Holy Week is a powerful time in the life of the disciples of Jesus. The most important thing is that we worship our Lord – from His Passion to His Crucifixion to His Resurrection.

These events stay the same – wherever we worship.
